Re: Moreno Godoy v. Gallet Dreyer & Berkey, LLP, et al., No. 14 Civ. 7082 (PAE)

Dear Judge Engelmayer:

We write in response to Your Honor's Order of August 9, 2021 directing counsel "to jointly advise the Court, by letter filed on the docket of this case by the close of business on Wednesday, August 11, 2021, whether there are any dates in October, November or December 2021 on which necessary participants are unavailable for trial" and "to confirm that a jury trial of approximately three days in length remains the parties' best estimate." (ECF No. 195.)

Counsel have conferred and can advise the Court that one or more necessary participants is unavailable for trial on the following dates:

October 1-22
November 5
November 8-19
November 24-26
November 29-30
December 1
December 13-17
December 23-27

We note, of course, that availability could be affected by continuing developments with respect to the COVID-19 pandemic as well as penological considerations.

In addition, Mr. Douglas and Mr. Foley intend to move for leave to withdraw their representation of Defendant Roger Stavis. They will continue as trial counsel for Defendant Gallet Dreyer & Berkey, LLP only. The dates above do not reflect the availability of any new counsel for Mr. Stavis or of Mr. Stavis himself. The parties will update the Court on any additional dates of unavailability once new counsel for Mr. Stavis has appeared.

The parties have also discussed the possibility that one or more may seek permission to file an amended Joint Pretrial Order. The parties have agreed to revisit that issue once new counsel for Mr. Stavis has appeared and to promptly thereafter raise with the Court any request to amend the Joint Pretrial Order.

Finally, counsel confirm that a jury trial of approximately three days in length remains their best estimate for this case.

Respectfully,
